ADVOCATE FORDNEY BILL

Declare Neutrality in All Disputes Between Labor and Capital.

By a Staff Correspondent of THE BUN AND

NEW YORK HERALD, CLEVELAND, Sept. 28.—The American tegion did two things of major impor-tance to the general public to-day. One ras the overwhelming expression of pinion that every effort should be made to induce the United States Senate to

The other action taken by the thou and delegates in convention here was dorsement of the attitude of the egion heretofore in labor disputes. It was specifically asserted by a strong tinus to be wholly neutral between capital and labor in strikes and should onfine all activities in such affairs to that phase of the constitution of the legion which obligates all members to aid in the preservation of "law and

The demand for the bonus was almost unanimous. It was first passed by a viva voce vote with only five votes dis-senting. An attempt was then made by Henry Lakestream of Brooklyn to have roll called so that the delegates inight know where any opposition lay, be indorsement of the bonus plan manimous. The plan was defeated when informed the convention that they would never give in and cease their opposition to the bonus. With the exception of two or three other Southern States the egion throughout the entire nation is pledged to work for passage in the Senate of the bonus bill.

Bill Offers Varied Plans.

The options recommended under the olli are adjusted service pay based on ength of service, certificates maturing twenty years; vocational training, farm or home aid, and land settlement. Thirty-one States have already made through their Legislatures provisions for coperation under the last option. The labor question came up on the floor when a majority report of the reso-lutions committee was offered. It read

Resolved, That at the second annual national convention of the American Le-gion the legion reiterates its well known osition that it has no participation in controversies between capital and labor. The American Legion is not opposed to organized labor when it conducts itself, a we believe it normally does, in conrmity with law and order,"

It was on the last sentence of the reso-ution that the controversy was based. opponents said it was superfluous in lew of the legion's previous statements. The matter was finally settled by an in-dersement of National Commander D'Olier's statement to the press at the time of the outlaw railroad sirike, in which he declared emphatically for strict neutrality in such matters, but with the provision that legion members were ready to step in at any time in any

"You Never Made Coffee Like This Before—Have You Changed Your Brand?"

"No, I haven't changed my brand, dear, but the reasters have changed their package. You see, I have always bought my coffee at Jones & Company's who sell the Blank brand. It used to come in bulk and was weighed out and ground at the store. Now the reasters are using the 'Aertite' package. I noticed the difference as soon as I opened the box and I resolved then and there to buy no more bulk goods. The clerk told me he went through the plant the other day and saw the Pneumatic cost of packaging at the store, and besides no dirt of any kind can touch the coffee." "Well, it certainly makes a difference in the taste. I have noticed the growth of this packaging idea for some time and I believe that before long bulk goods will be unknownthat everything from peanuts to coffee will come in packages."
